HR 133 was signed into law on December 27, 2020. It provided an estimated $900 billion in COVID-19 relief funds across all states, localities, and tribal entities. The bill included financial support for various program areas that include funding for small businesses, an extension of unemployment benefits, vaccine and testing funds, support for schools and universities, rental assistance, and food support monies and direct payments to individuals and families.

Notes:

- Amounts reflected above are as of February 28, 2022, as reported by state agencies and institutions of higher education. Amounts are subject to change based on final awards, expenditures, and obligations between reporting periods. Awards sent directly to locals from federal agencies are not included in this report.
- Missing information was not available at the time of current survey ending February 28, 2022.
- Public Assistance grants are awarded by federal reimbursements. The Texas Division of Emergency Management is the state administrator. Due to the nature of the awards, TDEM pass throughs and state agencies reporting awards received may be recorded differently due to the timing of applications and reimbursements.

Footnotes:

1. Total actual awards do not include awards received by a state agency through a pass through award from another state agency.
2. Total pass through awards do not include awards passed through by a state agency to another state agency that has reflected receipt of the award in this report.
